HE TRIED TO STEAL AN OVERCOAT
However, the Stranger Got a Good Beating Instead, and Sneaked Away

The mother-in-law joke goes in the funny papers but it fall flat at home. Don't attempt to ride a bucking horse.

Hank Thurman, of Montoya, had a little experience with a sneak thief the other night while waiting for his train home. Hank had laid his overcoat down upon a table and was talking with some friends when a railroad man stepped up and told him that a man had just passed up the overcoat and was running away with it.

Hank started in pursuit and caught the man at the door of the Queen Hotel. Hank hit him once and knocked him down and then proceeded to give him a good beating. The man called for mercy and a couple of friends of Hank's pulled him off. It is not likely that the man will try to steal any more overcoats in this vicinity soon.

What Makes a Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength, and she may rule the kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters give her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, headache and tired, listless wear out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50¢. Guaranteed by the Elk Drug Store.
